

Amaury Jordan joins Alpha Leonis Partners as Board Member

2 May 2024, Zurich – Alpha Leonis Partners is delighted to announce the addition of Amaury Jordan to its Board of Directors. With his extensive experience in financial markets and deep expertise in advising clients, Mr. Jordan will be a valuable addition in shaping the future growth and strategic initiatives of the firm.

Amaury Jordan, CFA, brings a wealth of industry insights to Alpha Leonis Partners. He co-founded and served as CEO of Avalor Investment AG, a leading independent wealth management firm in Switzerland. Additionally, he currently serves as a Partner and Co-Chair at TriLake, an established Independent Wealth Management firm based in Singapore, which he co-founded in 2011. Mr. Jordan is also a Member of Lloyd's of London.

David Pinkerton, CEO of Alpha Leonis Partners, said: "We are excited to welcome Amaury Jordan to our Board of Directors. Mr. Jordan brings decades of global experience in the investment management industry that will support the future growth of the firm and further build on our continued success."

Mr. Jordan commented: "The dramatic decline in the number of publicly quoted companies in, say, the US over the last 20 years bears testimony to the fact that private markets are an increasingly indispensable part of every investor's portfolio. I'm very pleased to be part of Alpha Leonis, one of the leading independent boutique actors in this space. Alpha Leonis has an impressive team, an impressive track record and impressive clients, and I look forward to helping advance the firm's continued growth."

Alpha Leonis Partners is confident that Mr. Jordan's appointment will further strengthen its position as a leading Alternative Investment Advisor, reinforcing its commitment to delivering exceptional results for clients and investors alike.

About Alpha Leonis Partners:

Alpha Leonis Partners (ALP) is an independent advisory firm founded in 2017. The firm supports the funding and advancement of entrepreneurial-led innovation across private and capital markets. The firm's services include private equity advisory, co-investments and fund investments, and CIO and liquidity solutions.

ALP's mission is to provide its clients with outstanding investment solutions to help them realize their financial and/or philanthropic goals.

About Amaury Jordan:

Amaury Jordan co-founded Avalor Investment AG in 2005. Today, he spends his time between Singapore and Zurich, serving as an active Board Member of TriLake Partners, a wealth manager which he helped co-found in 2011. Prior to that, he spent twenty years in the investment industry across Wall Street and Private Banking in Zurich.

Mr. Jordan was a founding President of the Swiss CFA Society and later served on the Board of the CFA Institute. He was also a founding member of the Alliance of Swiss Wealth Managers (ASV-ASWM), and Board member until 2021.

Mr. Jordan was raised in Munich, Strasburg, Sydney, Prague, Montreal, and New Delhi, before completing his studies in Paris and Boston. He is a graduate of the American University of Paris ('summa cum laude') and the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy.

For more information please contact: Caterina Ariani, ariani@alphaleonispartners.com